23 Without A Loss; Rams Co-Champions

Tied With Vero Beach

The Rams won over Pahokee by a score of 7 to 6, and earned it, Wednesday night.

There was a lot of Peacock on the football field, and a dozen or more of his teammates helped him to make the Golden Rams look like a second rate and untrained team for three quarters.

What is called the "breaks" of the game favored the Blue Devils.

Mr. Peacock's passing game was as unsuccessful as the Rams' defense against his running when his receivers were bottled up.

In the fourth quarter with the Blue Devils leading by a score of 6 to a Big Zero, the Rams came alive, began tackling like they meant it, and delivered some blocks that were effective.

The Rams' line smashers did their best, and the ball was tied, when the ball was pushed over the line.

A running play, bruising but going forward gave the Rams that extra point necessary for a win.

With the game on ice except for about six minutes, the Rams dallied with the ball when they had it, and swarmed at the backfield of the Blue Devils at one point, apparently realizing that the Peacock backfield could be invaded.

The Bill Young Memorial Trophy, given to the winning team of the annual Pahokee-Eustis game, was presented to the Golden Rams from the Pahokee Lions President thru the BG Lions President for the tenth time of a total of twenty-one.

There have been three times, when Pahokee has had the trophy for eight times.

The Trophy is held by the winning team until it is defeated.

The object of the award is to promote good sportsmanship and sportsmanship between the two schools and the neighboring communities.

Glades residents, still in every village and hamlet across our nation and the world . . . were shocked and saddened at the incredulous news of the assassination of President Kennedy last Friday in Dallas.

News of the unbelievable fatal shooting spread like wildfire and people everywhere stood in stunned silence verifying the reports by TV.

A vibrant and forceful personality, President Kennedy had become, through the wide use of television during his short career one of the best known Presidents. His frequent visits to Palm Beach brought him closer to all of us.

"Better Housing And More Of It" Reported Need

At a regular meeting Tuesday night, Executive Director Emmett Roberts reported to the Board that Osceola Labor Center is full to capacity of 1,100 families with a pile of applications for the several types of housing on file.

Manager Fred Simmons reports that a building which had been converted to apartments had already been filled, and that plans are being made to increase the number of the metal shelters to concrete block apartments.

At Osceola a campaign has been under way for sometime to convert the metal shelters into concrete block apartments, and it is expected that water and bathrooms.

At Okeechobee, Manager Jim Wierengo reports that he has 1,700 persons living in the camp and all livable facilities utilized.

Reconstruction of metal shelters to block apartments is also going ahead according to plans, with one entire section nearing completion.

"With the applications on file by 145 families for homes at the Okeechobee Center," says Director Roberts, "we hope to proceed at a faster pace with our conversions."

"It is a great satisfaction to know that many residents of the Center are in greater comfort after having moved into better housing, indicating an appreciation for more conveniences and comfort."

BG Police Remember Officer Tippit

"—he gave up his life for a friend, let us give up our life for a friend," says the Belle Glade Police Officers Benevolent Association, which includes individual members, a letter to Mrs. Marie Tippit, the widow of the slain Dallas police officer, along with a check.

The letter says: "Whenever a police officer hears of another officer giving his life in the line of duty, there is a prayerful still to residents of our County.

Belle Glade Churches immediately opened their doors for prayer on Friday evening and on Saturday morning.

Services were conducted by even demonstrations on Sunday. Folks at home sat glued to listen to repeated religious services on Sunday, broadcast across the nation and from our own.

Absence of everyday sociality was noted in restaurants and business houses on Saturday as each citizen attempted to follow some form of routine while silently examining his own Presidents. His frequent visits to Palm Beach brought him closer to all of us.

As the week wore on, a sorrowing nation closed ranks again to welcome a new President . . . with thanks to all in this Thanksgiving week.

Lyndon B. Johnson is so well prepared to take over the government reins.

"Why, Oh Why?"

The world takes off to consider the effect on it of the death of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, President of the United States.

A majority of the world's people believe PEACE, as their most cherished hope, will be susceptible to the storm winds of international uncertainty, and the loss of a powerful leader.

Having achieved THE position of world leadership, as President of the United States, John Kennedy has marked plainly a historical route, broadening progressively towards Utopia, for ALL AMERICANS, and such of the world as may take advantage.

Navy Officer John F. Kennedy's disregard for personal safety, and his integrity in leavening, take high position in his political background of our Presidents.

Great men, throughout history including great Presidents, have acknowledged and asked guidance from a Supreme Power. Dependence on GOD was manifested in President Kennedy's public utterances and works.

GOD was a refuge of appeal by Lyndon B. Johnson in his first public statement as President.

The work of an apparently confused mind interrupted the life's ambition of pious parents for a brilliant and cooperative son, when President Kennedy was assassinated last Friday.

Many have asked, WHY? OH WHY?

UNCLE DAN from DOOLIE says:

Dear Mister Editor:

I see in the papers where the Government has added 4,750 more 'folks' to the payroll. This means that the Department had to get 2,972 more workers to handle this new Zip business. I reckon this would come under the head of zipping up the zipper and unzipping the tapes. I was reading in the papers where one Washington column writer claims this new system ain't no improvement over the old zone system. He allowed as how we were in the Zip system and hadn't been needed a pair of bedroom shoes.

Personal, Mister Editor, I don't know about such matters. I'm just telling you what the man said.

Then the Department of Agriculture took on 284 more employees. It seems it's going to take a heap more typers, clerks and bookkeepers to keep track of the w-eat crop now that the farmers has took the controls.

And the Treasury Department put on 884 more workers in July when the new budget went into effect. But the pie in the papers seems to think that just goes to prove — pre-serve — that the higher the public debt gets, the more workers it takes to handle the fitters.

It was also announced the widow of the late Senator George Smathers will spend $14 billion this year. I was reading in another piece in the papers where the 1963 farm crop for the whole nation will come to about $14 billion. I can't figure out what Congress was trying to balance the program against the farm crop. If so, that's the first time the word "balance" has come up in this session of the Congress.

I was reading these figures to the fellers at the country store Saturday night and the results was the usual split decision. Clem Webster, that good ol' New York State Senator of Kennedy, claimed all this was good for the country, kept employment high. Ed Doolittle allowed as how we wasn't git-ting no place when high employment called for higher prices.

They ain't no compromise between Clem and Ed in politics. I recollect back under Truman when the papers had a little trouble getting the new breeds priced now to remove a 10-penny nail at one of them Government stock-breeding farms. A lot of this and that went on in the papers about the matter and it was out on the agenda at the country store one Saturday night.

Clem argued the country didn't have no prize cows till the Democrats took over under Franklin Roosevelt. Furthermore, allowed Clem, a 10-penny nail now and then might be good for a cow — make her milk rich with iron. But Ed wanted a investigation to see which of them Democrats was throwing away good Government nails.

They're not even have no prize cows till the Democrats took over under Franklin Roosevelt. Furthermore, allowed Clem, a 10-penny nail now and then might be good for a cow — make her milk rich with iron. But Ed wanted a investigation to see which of them Democrats was throwing away good Government nails.

Yours truly,

Uncle Dan

Land-Rover Added To Sales Line Of Hendry Tractor Co.

Hendry Tractor Company is the new agent for sales and service of the Land-Rover 4-wheel drive vehicles.

Announcement was made this week by Earl Byrd, manager of the Company for the past four years. They said they've visual to add this jeep-type vehicle to their tractor busi-

"We feel it is just the car for farmers, ranchers and sportsmen. It is the result of the rigidity of its construction and the fact the body is made of aluminum and will never rust or corrode." It is the most versatile vehicle in the world."

Mr. Byrd went on to say that the vehicles, manufactured in Warwickshire, England, have been tested for fourteen years in the civilized and primitive parts of the world, mainly by the Armed Services. They aren't built for beauty, Byrd explained, but for hard use and utility, and have their own built-in air conditioning system.

The Land-Rover line is now on display at Hendry's Belle Glade, Glade.

Deer are normally thought of as timid and shy animals. However, more than 300 game deer have been captured in recent years.

HELP KEEP BELLE GLADE CLEAN!

The Hunter

By Skipper Schoppele

When the hunting bug strikes one of our modern American males, he begins to search for new mounts for his newly-acquired heads for the Armed Forces Surplus Store and purchases very expensive equipment. His purchase includes such things as guns, special ammunition, different mounts or components, and sometimes a hunting vehicle of some sort. He then buys a pair of expensive hunting dogs which he keeps in high priced kennels year round. Since our hunter has no hunting experience, he is a complete stranger to them and they don't obey him in the least. He soon discovers that his purchase was a poor one and that a pair of his dogs could hunt as well.

On the day of the hunt the alarm clock rings at 4:00 a.m. He quickly wakes his wife to fix breakfast for him. His hunting buddies then come for him and he ends up not eating it at all.

The hunters reach their destination: a field covered in water and mud where they have been using their equipment and don't like their camouflage. Some of these so-called guides are so wildly colored that they would seem to scare the game out of their hunting grounds.

Our hunter, heavily burdened with equipment, begins trudging through the muddy zone in pursuit of the game. Not used to wading, he loses his footing and falls into the water. When he is up again he discovers that he has dropped his firearm and feels in the mud until he recovers it. This doesn't discourage our hero. He selects a place to sit and waits for the long wet cold wait.

After several freezing hours he hears a quacking in the distance. Ah, ducks finally! He crouches and moves not a muscle and the birds are quickly overtaken. Then he takes care of his prey, aims and squeezes the trigger only to hear a disheartening "click." Wet shells! Our great hunter hasn't remembered to reload after falling to the water. The sun begins to descend and

"Now that wasn't such a hard test, was it?"

Gossiping Gandy

The Sadie Hawkins dance was postponed to a later date but many of the girls did get dates. Among them were:

Janet H. and Dick W., Marilyn R. and Bert D., Julie A. and John C., Nancy F. and Eddie M., Barbara C. and Skipper P., Carol D. and Tim H., Leon F. and Tom H., Lynda L. and Tony L., Sharon M. and Richard C., Judy G. and Ronnie M., Gwendy G. and Danny S., Becky S. and Eddie M., Shirley K. and Eddie B., Vernon R. and Ronnie M., Laura R. and Roy H.

Congratulations to the Belle Glade sponsors: Laura Rogers, Julie Abel, and Barbara Collins. You all certainly looked good last night!

Gwen G. and Carol V. why in the world were you crawling out of the window at P. P. P.? That's what we heard about their placements tests last week and we noticed the presence of numerous applications on Coach Dickey's desk for Bean City U.

Johnny S., Becky S., and Rachel C. seem to have lost their driver's licenses or did they ever have them? Only your local Police Force knows for sure!!!

We all hope you are feeling better, Ann W.

The women played last night at the dance. A swinging time was had by all.

The majority of the senior girls had a rockin' time at P. D.'s house Thanksgiving Eve.

K. W. seems to be in a turmoil most of the time during sixth period. Slow down Kay before you have a breakdown.

Sharon A. also seems to be in a turmoil. Seems like E. is around her this week.

Buddy B. who was ill calmed last week? The Ft. Pierce telephone wires were very busy were they not?

Danny S. who was your late date last night? You looked the hunter return home with nothing but a feverish cold and concludes his day by feasting on roast duck in an uptown restaurant.

Cafeteria Evaluation

The school cafeteria rated excellent winter. It was evaluated last week by two students, a parent, a faculty member, and a cafeteria staff member. The students who eat in the cafeteria were asked:

The cafeteria was evaluated in such areas as the sanitation conditions, the condition of the equipment being used, the type menu, and the qualifications of the personnel. The members of the committee rated the cafeteria excellent in almost every area.

FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

The only areas concerning the cafeteria that were rated low were the attitudes and the actions of the students. The table manners of the students need some improvement. The committee decided if students would learn respect, manners would be improved. The members of the cafeteria staff were to be commended.

The Circus Will Never Die . . . As Long As There Are Children

Daily Bres., Ring Circus two complete performances, afternoon and evening . . . under the "Big Top." The Circus is not now, and never will, be dead . . . despite adversities and rising costs the part of our life. It has been said lately that "the Circus, the favorite amusement of children from eight to eighty, was fast fading from the entertainment world, but as long as we have 'grown-ups' who can look back and thank their stars that they saw a circus when they were a youngster — and children who can experience the wondrous thrill of their first Circus, it will live long, long. The Circus, synonymous with pantomime and laughter; the trainer of the wild beast of the jungle; the brave men or women who flirt with death; the acrobats, the ring master, the clown, the jester, the dancer, the singer, the humorist, the most important musician who paces the dancing horses and ponderous pachadams all go to make up the thrill of this daring, brilliant galaxy of glittering stars.

The Circus is an American as our favorite game, baseball. We all love the game, the apple pie which is not accompanied by cheese. We all envy little children who have the thrill of seeing it for the first time and this first thrill and remain and be revived over and over again. It is the only agreeable delight that you can buy for money.

More than 35 varieties of fresh water fish are to be found in the crystal clear water of Florida's Silver Springs.

Now '64 Chevy II . . .

with a V8 engine

Now you see it. Now you don't. When a Chevy II does the kind of disappearing act you know without looking twice, it's '64 with V8 engine.

That's right. A full-grown 195-hp Turbo-Fire V8. It's available for the first time this year along with a choice of three other engines—the standard 4 (in 100 Series sedans), the standard 6 and a new 135-hp 6. (All three of them retain their high spirits on modest amounts of regular gasoline.)

But the changes aren't confined to what happens when you slip into the driver's seat. There are styling features like the tasteful grille design and trim accents, for instance. And the larger self-adjusting brakes that further reduce upkeep on a car that already has a reputation of coming about as close to perpetual motion as anything on four wheels can get.

The place to get the full story on '64 is your Chevrolet dealer. And after you've got them, we hope you'll turn to one further detail yourself. Drive it.
